LIBRARY

PARLOR

Many questions of permanent importance are asked each year at Marion College. Aside from the usual ones there have been some of a different nature this year. "Am I dreaming?", "Where am I?", "Just how was this before?", and others of similar nature have been asked by those entering the dormitory.

A complete remodeling of first floor has contributed greatly to the beauty and usefulness of the building.

Since the foyer is very practical for lounging purposes, the parlor may be reserved for more special usage.

Some gifts to the parlor are a grand piano, a large mirror, lamps, and living room suite, the latter of which was made possible by the Indiana Missionary Society.

FOYER

Another nice gift by the same organization is that of a drinking fountain presented in memory of Mrs. J. D. Williams. A very appropriate quotation appears on the plate, "As ye drink, drink also of the water of life."

The guest room, since the second night after completion, has been in almost constant use. Some appreciations expressed by our guests are: "This has been a dear haven," and "A lovely room," "Excellent taste," and "There is a place of quiet rest."

The practice rooms, the students' publications room, and the dean's quarters are each just as important in their own special way.

FOREWORD

"In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

The acknowledgment of Christ in all endeavors results in the assurance of direction by an omniscient mind and an omnipotent hand. It is humanly impossible to draw back the veil that enshrouds the guarded secrets of the unborn years, but it would be nothing short of blind, unfounded optimism to assume that never would there be a passage perilous when a trusty guide would be indispensable to safety.

If God in Christ can paint the blush on the bud that hangs from the limb of the rose, and make the dew drops of morning tremble like molten diamonds on the virgin white lip of the lily, if He can plant the rivers in lines of rippling silver, and can cover His valley floors with carpets of softest green, tacked down with lovely daisies and laughing daffodils; if He can scoop out the basin of the seven seas and pile up the granite of the mountains until they pierce the turquoise skies; if He can send a Niagara thundering on a mighty and majestic minstrelsy from century to century; if He can fuel and refuel the red throated furnace of a thousand suns to blaze His universe with light; if on the lovely looms of heaven He can weave the delicate tapestry of a rainbow to throw across the shoulders of the retreating storm, and at eventide fashion a fleece of crimson to curtain the couch of the dying sun, and across the black bosom of the night that follows, bind a glittering garment spangled with ten thousand stellar jewels, what kind of a faith is mine if I cannot believe and rest securely in the belief that this Christ whom I acknowledge will direct my life in a path chosen by His love, chartered by His wisdom, and made victorious by His power.

DEDICATION

To Dr. Allen Bowman, who has rendered a gracious service characterized by remarkable efficiency in the capacity of Dean of Marion College, who is unsurpassed as a competent instructor possessed with a personalized student interest, who has with daily consistency exemplified the serenity of a Christ directed life, the 1949 Marionette is sincerely dedicated.

Dr. Allen Bowman

ADMINISTRATION

PRESIDENT WM. F. McCONN
M.A., B.O., D.D.

In admiration of his genuine love for Christ, in appreciation of his willingness to offer material and spiritual counsel to those in need, in realization of the integral part he has played in the advancement of this institution, in honor of years of devoted service beyond the call of duty, we hold the president of Marion College in high esteem.

CAROLYN FISHER
Secretary to the President

CLIFTON A. LETHERER
Treasurer

MURIEL A. KLAASSEN
Bookkeeper

The three years of service which Clifton Letherer has rendered to Marion College have witnessed certain improvements in the physical plant. The reconstruction of the first floor of Teter Hall and the remodeling of the General Office in the Administration Building were under his direction. The Elizabeth Ayers Library and the Physical Education Building have been erected during his term of office.

SENIORS

Together we have studied and engaged in various activities. Together we have imbibed the spirit of this institution. Together we have caught a vision of future possibilities. Delightful as our sojourn has been, the completion of our courses leads us into widely divergent fields of service. Our prayer is for constant direction from the Christ whom we willingly acknowledge.

Officials of the class are: Delmore Fessenden, president; Eva Gilger, vice-president; Helen French, secretary; Fred Warrington, treasurer; Orie Spaulding, Student Council Representative; Prof. Main, sponsor.

JUNIORS

Energetic, enthusiastic, enterprising—these words could be typical of none other than the noted Juniors. Stepping into the elevated position of upperclassmen, these students have given themselves to many profitable pursuits. Intermingled with their jovial moods are proper periods of serious realization of the need of Christ-centered living.

Sitting in the seat of authority are Robert Hughes, president; Wilbur Williams, vice-president; Joyce Wood, secretary; Marvin Hinds, treasurer; Arlene Sheets, Student Council Representative; Dr. W. T. Dayton, sponsor.

SOPHOMORES

Spirituality, originality, vitality—these typify the Sophomore Class. Despite their erstwhile accomplishments, they still eye the upperclassmen with looks of awe, anxious for their turn to mount the Juniors' lofty heights. However, this class has filled well various positions of responsibility and service.

Chosen to officership were Donald Polston, president; Heyman Duecker, vice-president; Ivetta Welch, secretary; Richard Deisler, treasurer; Clara Chizum, Student Council Representative; Miss Croft, sponsor.

FRESHMEN

With each new school year something new is added—the Freshman Class. So, as usual, at the beginning of this school year a new group of students was enrolled in the student body. In true Freshman fashion they arrived. Some were shy, others bold; some were cheerful, others homesick. In true sophomore fashion they were received.

For the first year of their college career, they chose William Waggoner, president; Gene Draper, vice-president; Evelyn Sheets, secretary; Marjorie Snow, treasurer; Margaret DeVol, Student Council Representative; Prof. Carter, sponsor.

ADORATION

COLLEGE CHURCH

To all who desire a place of communion with God, to all who would bring an offering of praise, to all who seek strength for future endeavors, to all who are conscious of the necessity of omniscient direction, to all who sin and need a Saviour, to all for whom Christ died, this church opens wide its doors and makes free a place, and in the name of Jesus the Lord says, "Welcome."

CHURCH INTERIOR

"The Lord is in His holy temple. Let all the earth keep silence before Him." In this beautiful church the college students find a place of worship. Here there is provision for encouragement of heart, enlargement of vision, invigoration of faith, enlightenment of soul. Here one is made renewedly conscious of the satisfaction of a Christ-directed life. Here one may enter to worship and depart to serve.

CHORUS

Members of the student body and community comprise one of the largest and most outstanding musical organizations of Marion College. This chorus enriched the Christmas and Easter seasons with excellent presentations of great merit. Handel's "Messiah" was presented prior to Christmas vacation and Maunder's "Olivet to Calvary" was given April 10.

Third Row: Staley, Deisler, D. Taylor, Trump, D. Wagner, Hane, Costello, Pruitt.
Second Row: Santee, Holmes, Wolf, Shows, A. Smith, J. Houser, C. Cockerill, Gumm.
First Row: A. Sheets, Rickard, E. Smith, V. Stair, T. Stair, Yerks, Rayle, Gunby.

CHOIR

Composed of twenty-four selected voices, the College Choir has rendered a far-reaching service in song. Many of the Indiana churches were visited as well as those in surrounding states. The traditional Easter tour extended the ministry in song as far south as Central, South Carolina.

PROF. HERMAN BAKER
Director

French, Huston, Jacobs, Basham, F. Warrington, Williams, Sumwalt.

STUDENT CONFERENCE

Each Tuesday evening, Marion College students receive inspiration from praying, singing, and testifying together in the Student Conference services. The work of the gospel teams and the services held in various institutions are included in the ministry of this group of which John Basham is president.

W. Y. P. S.

A time of up-lift and blessing is the Sunday evening service of the Wesleyan Young People's Society of the College Church. The program committee has worked with Robert Berkebile, the president, to present well-planned programs which have been a vital part of the spiritual life.

Berkebile, Ott, A. Bowman, Routson, G. Butcher.

F. M. F.

F. Warrington, Stuck, Chizum, Spaulding, Polston.

Students of Marion College with definite missionary interests are banded together in the Foreign Mission Fellowship. Orie Spaulding, president, represented the College at a missionary convention at the University of Illinois in December.

One Sunday night each month the Missionary Committee has charge of the W. Y. P. S. program. With Orie Spaulding as chairman, this committee sponsored a convention with Mrs. Ruby Reisdorph and Rev. I. R. Birch as guest speakers.

MISSIONARY COMMITTEE

Gilger, DeVol, Spaulding.

QUARTET

Serving as singing ambassadors for Christ, the varsity quartet had a successful year. The members are: Gerald Smeenge, first tenor; Ross Vandine, second tenor; Glenn Draper, baritone; and Frank Harris, bass.

During the summer months this group traveled 5,000 miles singing the gospel throughout Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, and Michigan. Someone has said, "Music is the only art that can calm the agitations of the soul; it is one of the most delightful and magnificent gifts God has given us." In using their gift of song, the quartet renders service to the school, the church, and the community.

DELMORE L. FESSENDEN

Capability and dependability characterize this senior from Miltonvale, Kansas. Following his army career he became a student in Marion College. His list of responsibilities would include vice-president of the junior class of '48, president of the senior class of '49, president of the Eurekan Literary Society, and a member of the Westernaires Quartet.

EVA E. GILGER

Versatile and capable is this westerner who has played an active role in Marion College since her enrollment in the fall of '47. The editorship of the current yearbook was given her after serving as assistant in that capacity for the 1948 publication. Additional activities include work in the W.A.A. and C.C.C., officership in the Eurekan Society, vice-president of the senior class, president of the Forensic Club, member of the All-Star Basketball team, and two years an assistant to the Dean of Women.

JOHN M. HARRIS

Coming from the state of North Dakota, John Harris has made a name for himself at Marion College. His avenues of service include membership in the College Choir, Eurekan president, Student Conference president, Student Council president, member of the All-Star Basketball team during his first year, and former business manager of the Journal. Reliable and competent as he is, he deserves a place among the "Who's Who."

IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES*

RUTH ANN HUSTON

A musical student claiming Shelby, Michigan, as her home is Ruth Ann Huston. Four years a student in Marion College, she has made a contribution to the institution. Outstanding in the music department, she was soloist in the "Messiah" and "Olivet to Calvary." Three years service in the College Choir, membership in a Gospel Team, president of the W.A.A., Amphictyon secretary, Y.T.C. secretary, and Student Conference officer indicate future success.

JOHN W. SNIDER

A native of Indiana is the business manager of the 1949 Marionette who served as assistant on the staff last year. As treasurer of his freshman class, president of the sophomores, Eurekan president, Student Council treasurer, and Musicae member, this senior has distinguished himself and merited the honor of "Who's Who" membership.

VIDA E. STAIR

Another member of "Who's Who" active in music is Vida Stair. She has been church pianist, soloist in the "Messiah" and "Olivet to Calvary," member of the College Choir, assistant in the Music Department, Amphictyon secretary, vice-president of the C.C.C., Inter-Society Council member, typist for the Marionette and Journal. Blessed with talent and a pleasant disposition, Vida has made a definite place for herself on the campus.

* Elected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and ability to succeed.

JUNIOR SPEECH RECITALS

Helen Holt, Clara Chizum, Joyce Wood, John Heavilin

The Expression Department of Marion College, under the direction of Miss Emerson, has produced performers of noteworthy merit. In both junior and senior recitals, well-trained ability has been exhibited in the interpretation of a wide variety of numbers.

SENIOR SPEECH RECITAL

Mrs. Martha Naylor

Reader of
"Glory in the Midst"

FORENSIC CLUB

Standing: J. Heavilin, L. Buck, Cockman, C. Cockerill, Holz, Chizum, Jacobs, Shows, M. Smeenge, W. Craker, W. Kaufman.
Seated: Holt, M. Naylor, G. Butcher, Miss Emerson, Gilger, French.

Composed of selected members and striving toward the fulfillment of its purpose—the promotion of interest and efficiency in the art of public speaking, the Forensic Club has enjoyed a profitable year. Under the leadership of Eva Gilger, the club conducted closed programs, open programs, and speech contests.

SENIOR SPEECH RECITAL

Miss Lois Buck

Reader of
"Little Lord Fauntleroy"

Fourth row: Staley, Lentz, Trump, G. Draper, G. Draper, J. Snider, Crouch, R. Campbell, Cockman.

Third row: M. Smeenge, Sparks, Shows, Timberman, DeVol, Schlie, French, Huston.

Second row: Overman, E. Sheets, A. Smith, C. Cockerill, Spaulding, V. Stair, R. Tucker, T. Stair, L. Campbell, A. Sheets, Dunwiddie.

First row: Miss Croft, Miss McCamman, Mrs. McConn, Dr. McConn, Prof. Baker, Marvin Baker.

MUSICAE

"Music for life and fuller living" is the motto of the Musicae. On November 8, 1948, this organization made its grand debut on the Marion College campus with twenty-three charter members. Later twenty members were added on the basis of their ability in instrumental and vocal performance, and seven of the faculty as honorary members.

Marvin Baker was elected president of this new club. Elijah Cockman served as vice-president; Vida Stair, secretary; Arlene Sheets, treasurer; Miss Ruth McCamman, sponsor.

This organization held a closed program each month and presented two open programs during the course of the year. These entertainments proved a true fulfillment of the goal of the club which is expressed thus—to promote interest and efficiency in the art of music through listening and participation.

Second row: Lappin, Stonesifer, Kreps, M. Smeenge, Hooker, A. Smith, Dunwiddie, Tescher.

First row: Miss Linn, W. Kaufman, Holz, Reed, L. Campbell, R. Tucker, A. Bowman.

ART FORUM

An increase of interest in the field of art has made itself undeniably evident within recent months. This gave rise not only for a definite place, but also an absolute need for the formation of an art club. Thus the new Art Forum came into being.

For a motto this newest of all organizations on the campus chose "Simplicity is the key to all beauty." Its purpose for existence is the encouraging of self-expression among the members and the adding to their knowledge of art.

Dale Lappin was elected to the position of chief official. Norman Street officiated in his absence. Dorothy Gunby kept the records, and Hazel Rush was responsible for the funds. Miss Linn kept a guiding hand upon all important affairs.

With thirty members in the first year of its creation this new club gave an open program with a commendable display of artistic talent.

CHOIR

EUREKANS

Eureka! Yes, we have found it— a literary society of outstanding merit. Rush Day found the members of the society distinguished by their green caps giving a royal welcome to the new students. After the blowing of bugles, the rumbling of drums, the ringing of the victory bell, and triumphant marches around the campus, a semblance of restored order found 99 new students had chosen the society of the green and white colors.

John Snider served as president for the first term. Joseph Hunting was his successor for the winter term. Dr. Dayton was again elected sponsor.

The Eurekans triumphed over the Amphics on the softball diamond. After some hard-fought games both the fellows' and the girls' teams were victors. The same was true on the basketball floor. Consequently, the victory bell again is in Eurekan possession. This society sold 530 copies of the Marionette, thus claiming the loving cup.

Yea! Eureka!

AMPHICTYONS

With "Friendship" banner waving high, the "U. S. S. Amphic" sailed proudly into the new year. With billowing full-blown sails, the float representing the "U. S. S. Amphic" cruised around the campus on Rush Day giving free rides to all new recruits. The termination of the voyage on that first day found 92 new members added to the crew.

Captain Harold Brady, First Mate Darrell Gumm, Yeoman John Murphy, and Commander-in-chief Prof. Main sailed the good ship safely into port.

The Amphictyon Literary Society upheld the standard of friendliness and school spirit throughout the school year. Its members made a commendable showing on the ball diamond and basketball court. The sale of 339 copies of the Marionette are chalked up to their credit.

Sail on! Amphictyon! Sail on!

HOME CORNER
WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

Lincoln Blvd. at 35th Street

"O COME, LET US WORSHIP AND BOW DOWN: LET US KNEEL BEFORE THE LORD OUR MAKER FOR HE IS OUR GOD." Psa. 95:6,7.

Pastor — Rev. Chas. W. Carter, returned missionary to Africa and Professor Marion College.

GEORGE STREET

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH

MY CHURCH

My church is where the Word of God is preached, the power of God is felt, the Spirit of God is manifested, the love of God is revealed and the unity of God is perceived.

It is the home of my soul, the altar of my devotions, the hearth of my faith, the center of my affections and the foretaste of heaven.

I have united with it in solemn covenant, pledging myself to attend its services, to pray for its members, to give to its support, and to obey its laws.

It claims the first place in my heart, the highest place in my mind, the principal place in my activities, and its unity, peace and progress concern my life in this world and in that which is to come.

I owe it my zeal, my benevolence and my prayers. When I neglect its services, I injure its good name, I lessen its power, I discourage its members, and I chill my own soul.

I have solemnly promised in the sight of God and men to advance its interests by faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with my fellow members, by watching over their welfare, and by joining with them in prayer, praise and service, and that promise I this day renew, before God my Father, Christ my Redeemer, and the Holy Ghost my Sanctifier.—John Bunyan Smith.
